

Exhibits and Displays Policy

The Wayland Free Library offers exhibit and display space to the Wayland community as a public opportunity to highlight works of a cultural, educational, or civic nature. Mounting of displays or exhibits does not reflect Library endorsement of the ideas, issues, or events promoted by these exhibits or displays.

- Exhibits and displays must be approved by the Library management prior to installation.
- Exhibitors must complete an application and release form before the Library management will consider or exhibit any display.
- Displays/exhibits may remain on premises for up to 60 days or at the discretion of the Library management.
- Neither the Library nor Library Board of Trustees accepts responsibility for loss or damage to any exhibit or display
- Installation and removal of displays or exhibits are the responsibility of the applicant. Displays or exhibits that are not removed at the agreed time may be removed by library staff. Any expense incurred then becomes the responsibility of the applicant.
- Exhibit/display must be accompanied by identification of the exhibitor along with contact information of the sponsoring agency if applicable and/or its authorized representative.

Permission to mount exhibits is based on the provisions of this policy and not on the viewpoints, content, beliefs, or affiliations of the persons/organizations responsible for the exhibits or displays. Failure to comply with this policy may result in denial of exhibits or displays permission.

Approved by Wayland Free Library Board of Trustees: September 15, 2014