

Freegal Music

Freegal is a free music download service available to you and your family as cardholders of the library. Through this system, you can download up to 3 free songs per week and stream 3 free hours per day. The songs you download may be kept as long as you like. The service includes a vast inventory of songs. From current hits to classics, rock and roll to country, there is sure to be something for everyone in your family.

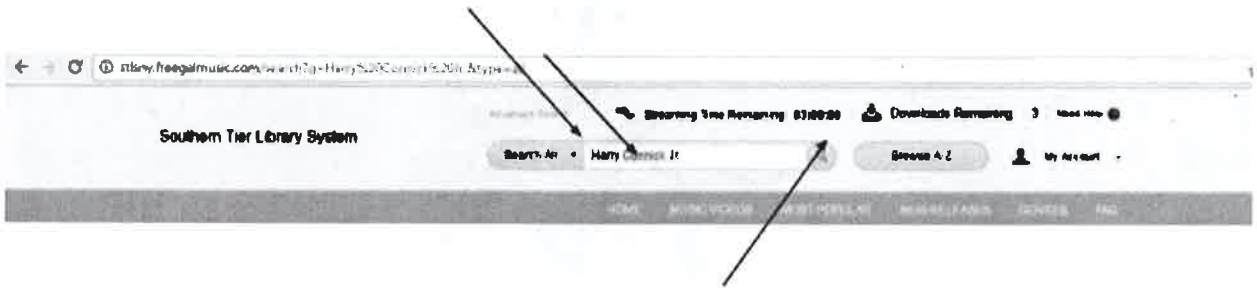

What do you need to access Freegal?

- A valid library card and PIN number
- A computer or mobile technology device (tablet, smartphone, iPad, Kindle, etc.) The Freegal app for mobile devices is available through iTunes or Google Play. If you are connecting via a mobile device, the option to download the app will appear the first after you click the link on the library site.

How do I access Freegal?

- Visit the Wayland Free Library website at <http://gunlockelibrary.org/> and select Freegal Music under library resources.
- The link provided will take you to the Freegal site within STLS.
 - Simply sign in using your library card and PIN number (generally the last 4 digits of the phone number associated with the card.)
 - You will be asked to accept the terms and conditions of the site.
 - The next dialogue box will ask you to provide an email for bi-weekly newsletters. This is not required to access the service. If you do not wish to provide this information, simply choose Cancel.
 - A list of instructions will appear the first time you use Freegal. It will provide an overview of accessing the site and its services. After reviewing this information, simply click OK at the bottom of the screen to begin your Freegal experience.

- Search for a song by artist, song title or genre.

- Counters at the top of the home screen show you how many hours and minutes of streaming time remain, as well as, how many weekly downloads are left.
- After you have made your song selection, you have the option to Add to Playlist, Add to Wishlist, or Download.

- To stream the song, simply press the play button.
- The streaming counter resets daily. The weekly downloads reset every Sunday.

Grab your computer or mobile device and start listening today. With over 10 million songs available, there is surely something for everyone.
